OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The US economy rose 2.6% in the third quarter versus the consensus estimate of 2.3%, rebounding from the 0.6% contraction in the second quarter. The growth came stemmed from a narrowing trade deficit along with increases in consumer spending, non-residential fixed investment, and government spending. Meanwhile, inflation in September rose more than anticipated, coming in at 8.2% compared to the expected 8.1% as rent and food prices continue to surge. Month-on-month, the 10-year US Treasury yield rose by about 22 basis points to 4.05% on October 31.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned -0.48% for the month, underperforming its benchmark by 84 basis points. Year-to-date, return amounted to -2.46%, underperforming its benchmark by 454 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The fund will maintain its current underweight position, in terms of duration. Investors in the bond fund must be prepared to withstand short-term volatility as higher investment value is normally achieved over the medium- to long-term.
