OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The 10-year benchmark German Bund yields fell 24 basis points in November to -0.35%.

Annual EU inflation rose 4.1% in October from 3.0% in the previous month, as energy prices continue to rise and supply chain bottlenecks remain, however the European Central Bank believes that the high inflation is still transitory. Manufacturing PMI in the EU rose to 58.6 November from 58.3 in October as new businesses grew, and services PMI rose to 56.6 in November from 54.6 in October however supply-side constraints remain severe. News of the new Omicron COVID-19 strain keep investors wary of growth and recovery, especially since it was reported to be more transmissible.

The next European Central Bank monetary policy meeting will be on December 16.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned -0.19% for the month, underperforming its benchmark by 11 basis points. Year-to-date, return amounted to 0.14%, outperforming its benchmark by 77 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The fund will maintain its current duration. Investors in the bond fund must be prepared to withstand short-term volatility as higher investment value is normally achieved over the medium- to long-term.
