OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Economic activity in the Eurozone grew 5.4% year-on-year due to a rise in exports and stocks, offsetting the drops in governments' expenditure and consumer purchases. Meanwhile, May inflation soared to 8.1% from 7.4% in April as energy costs continue to rise. Concerned about rising prices, the ECB announced that it would raise key interest rates by 25 basis points in July and again in September, when a larger increase will be appropriate if the outlook does not improve. Month-on-month, the 10-year Bund rose by about 11 basis points to 1.364% on June 30.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned -1.30% for the month, underperforming its benchmark by 125 basis points. Year-to-date, return amounted to -4.26%, underperforming its benchmark by 392 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The fund will maintain its current duration. Investors in the bond fund must be prepared to withstand short-term volatility as higher investment value is normally achieved over the medium- to long-term.
