OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The PSEI managed to stage a comeback in October after holding above the 5,700 key support level. The stock market was up 7.18% or 412.36 points for the month, closing at 6,153.43. This narrows the index's year-to-date loss down to 13.61%. The PSEI was supported by the Philippine Peso's strengthening against the Dollar. The Peso closed at PHP57.98 versus the USD, coming from a PHP59 peak during the month as the BSP Governor and the Finance Secretary turned more hawkish in their statements regarding interest trajectory for the Philippines, while also telegraphing active intervention in the forex market. The BSP will be looking to match the US Federal Reserve's rate hikes going forward.

In macro news, inflation accelerated further in September to 6.9%. This is the highest monthly print in four years, led by the increase in prices in food items which rose by 7.4%. Year-to-date inflation now stands at 5.1%, above the central bank's 2-4% target band. Top index gainers in October were MER (+14.60%), GLO (+14.38%) and BDO (+14.17%) while laggards included RLC (-9.95%), WLCON (-8.14%) and CNVRG (-5.95%).

The PSEI made a strong rebound after testing the 5,700 level and will likely remain volatile heading into the end of the year. Aside from inflation and monetary policy, strong focus will likely be given to corporate earnings as companies started reporting good 3rd quarter results thus far. Meanwhile, global macroeconomic concerns will likely persist in the short to medium term.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned 6.94% for the month, outperforming its benchmark by 46 basis points. Year-to-date, return amounted to -13.27%, underperforming its benchmark by 118 basis points.

Fund Strategy. Our strategy is to remain invested in quality names in the market and be selective by focusing on the companies that deliver strong earnings results.
