OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The bond market was relatively flat end-July as participants stayed sidelined ahead of final details on the new RTB tranche, with the 10-year benchmark going down only about 2 bps on the month. Headline inflation printed benignly in July at roughly 0.9% year-on-year. At the same time, growth remains positive, with Q2 2025 GDP expanding around 5.5% year-on-year but still below the target of the BSP. Overall, the macro backdrop tilted toward lower rates, reflecting low inflation, slower but still-solid growth, and subdued volatility. Liquidity conditions stayed orderly, with limited knee-jerk moves across the curve. This combination left yields narrowly traded and anchored just below recent levels.

The Bureau of the Treasury announced RTB 519 with an initial offer size of PHP 200bn, pricing scheduled for 5 August, a public offer window through 15 August, and settlement on 20 August. Market expectations are that the accepted size will exceed the initial PHP 200bn, driven largely by the sizable R-513 maturity in August of around PHP 500bn, which will create strong rollover demand from institutional holders.

Looking ahead, the bias remains toward lower yields as benign inflation, slower growth and fading trade policy-related volatility. The combination of slower but still positive growth and the prospect of very strong demand for RTB 519 suggests continued compression, particularly in the belly of the curve. Key risks that could derail this path include a sudden global risk-off episode, materially higher imported inflation, or a surprise change in BSP guidance. For now, however, the prevailing view is that subdued inflation, ample demand for government supply, and a benign macro backdrop keep yields on a downward trajectory. Investors should monitor upcoming inflation prints and auction subscription results for confirmation.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned 0.36% for the month at par with its benchmark. Year-to-date, return amounted to 2.32%, underperforming its benchmark by 44 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund looks to gradually increase its duration position as interest rates are expected to fall over the next few months. Local inflation has settled within the BSP's target in the past months and is expected to be manageable. After easing its policy rates by a total of 50 basis points in the first half of 2025, the BSP remains vigilant in monitoring inflation figures before considering further rate cuts. Volatility may persist in the near term driven by global factors, and the portfolio will be actively managed to take advantage of this. Investors in the bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher investment value is normally achieved over the medium to long term horizon.
