OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Philippine government bond prices initially recovered in April following the sharp selloff in March. However, gains were later reversed, with yields ending the month broadly unchanged.

The early decline in yields was driven by improving global sentiment, particularly after reports of a ceasefire between the US and Iran, which led to a sharp drop in oil prices. Brent crude fell from around $118 per barrel to as low as $90. However, this improvement proved temporary as negotiations stalled, causing oil prices to rebound and weigh on market sentiment.

Locally, bond yields were pressured higher following further monetary tightening by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP). The policy rate was raised from 4.25% to 4.50%, alongside upward revisions to inflation forecasts. The BSP also signaled the possibility of additional rate hikes, contributing to the bond selloff late in the month.

During the period, the Bureau of the Treasury raised PHP 115 billion through regular bond auctions, below its PHP 120–140 billion target. This was due to the government choosing to accept fewer bids as bond yields continued to rise.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned 0.40% for the month, outperforming its benchmark by 116 basis points. Year-to-date, return amounted to -1.68%, underperforming its benchmark by 95 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund looks to maintain a nimble portfolio position to take advantage of any opportunities as interest rates are seen to increase over the next few months. Local inflation is seen to be affected by ongoing geopolitical tensions in the Middle East and may breach the BSP's targeted range near-term. This may prompt the BSP to end its cutting cycle earlier than anticipated. Volatility may persist in the near term driven by global factors, and the portfolio will be actively managed to take advantage of this. Investors in a bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher returns are typically achieved over the medium to long term.
