OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The Philippine Stock Exchange (PSEi) dropped for the second consecutive month in April, falling 1.2% for the month and bringing the year-to-date losses to 10.8%. The month-on-month weakness was primarily due to continued mobility restrictions because of the sustained high daily number of new COVID-19 cases in the country, with the weakness persisting even as Metro Manila and its surrounding provinces moved to the less strict modified enhanced community quarantine mid-month. March inflation came out lower versus estimates and last month's print (4.5% yoy vs. est. 4.9%), though still remained above the BSP's target for the year. Earnings season started with a handful of corporates releasing first quarter earnings, with most coming in line with estimates. Foreigners continued to be net sellers in April, with portfolio outflows amounting to PHP13.43 billion or USD278.5 million for the month.

Top gainers for the month include MPI (+8.3%), ICT (+7.4%), and TEL (+4.5%), with the largest month-on-month detractors being MEG (-12.0%), JGS (-11.7%), and RLC (-8.4%). Year-to-date, FGEN (+10.5%), ICT (+5.2%), and LTG (+2.4%) were the best performers, while JGS (-26.3%), AEV (-24.9%), and MEG (-22.8%) were the worst performers.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned -1.09% for the month, outperforming its benchmark by 3 basis points. Year-to-date, return amounted to -10.28%, beating its benchmark by 49 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to track the Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi).
