OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The Philippine Stock Exchange (PSEi) was up for a fourth consecutive month to close at 7,200.88, rising by 2.07% in November. The latest monthly move brought year-to-date returns to positive territory at 0.86%. The market rally was fueled by further loosening of quarantine restrictions in Metro Manila to Alert Level 2 early during the month. This lifted the local equities market to as high as 5.5% intra-month, going above the 7,400 level. However, news of the new COVID variant, Omicron, caused a global market sell-off. As such, market returns were reduced as fears of future lockdowns re-emerged, but still managed to hold on to some gains for the month of November. During the month, foreigners were net buyers for a second straight month, with inflows of USD5m, mainly as a result of passive fund movements in the MSCI rebalancing.

Top gainers for the month include BLOOM (14.56%) and SMPH (12.99%), both of which are expected to benefit from looser mobility restrictions. Meanwhile, worst performers were utility companies ACEN (-7.99%) and AP (-6.84%).

Fund Performance. The Fund returned 2.10% for the month, outperforming its benchmark by 3 basis points. Year-to-date, return amounted to 1.48%, outperforming its benchmark by 62 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to track the Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi).
