OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi) experienced a volatile month, declining 4.5% month-on-month and fully reversing the gains recorded in July amidst a challenging macroeconomic backdrop. Investor sentiment was weighed down by a confluence of factors, including heightened geopolitical tensions in the Middle East, slowing domestic economic growth, elevated inflation, tighter monetary policy, and continued weakness in the Philippine Peso.

Domestic economic data remained soft, with 2Q GDP growth slowing to 2.3% year-on-year, while inflation accelerated, albeit at a slower pace, to 6.2%. The Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) further tightened monetary policy by raising its policy rate by 25 basis points. Meanwhile, the peso weakened beyond the PHP62-per-US dollar level, adding to concerns over external vulnerabilities and imported inflation pressures.

Market sentiment was further affected by the MSCI quarterly index rebalancing, which saw Ayala Land, Inc. (ALI) removed from the MSCI Standard Index. As a result, the PSEi ended the month below the key psychological support level of 6,000, closing at 5,956.33.

Trading activity improved during the period, supported by rebalancing-related flows. Average daily value turnover increased 9.3% month-on-month to Php5.95 billion. Foreign investors, however, turned net sellers, recording net outflows of US$223 million, the largest monthly foreign selling activity since March.

On a stock-specific basis, top gainers for the month includes: DMC (+6.02%), AEV (+4.51%), LTG (+3.83%). Meanwhile top laggards are as follows: SCC (-15.89%), CNVRG: (-15.58%), and GLO (-9.94%).

Fund Performance. The Fund returned -4.25% for the month, outperforming with its benchmark by 24 basis points. Year-to-date, return amounted to 0.47%, outperforming its benchmark by 207 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to track the Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi).
