OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Global equities posted modest gains in June. US equities reached new highs as economic optimism and vaccine efficiency against the Delta variant boosted markets. Eurozone equities also performed well for the month as the accelerating pace of vaccinations helped the reopening of economies and supported the lifting of lockdown restrictions. Emerging markets declined for the month as the continuing slow pace of vaccinations and resurgence of community infections due to the Delta variant weighed on investor sentiment. The Federal Reserve kept rates unchanged and maintained its accommodative stance but committee members projected two rate hikes by the end of 2023. Inflation concerns were tempered as the central bank remarked that the recent pickup in inflation is transitory and inflation is on track to moderately exceed 2 percent for some time as longer-term expectations remain well-anchored at 2 percent. Economic data continued to reflect positive signs of recovery. US manufacturing activity grew at a record pace as its PMI increased to 62.6 from 62.1 in June driven by the strong domestic demand. Eurozone's business activity grew at its fastest pace in 15 years as the composite PMI increased from 57.1 to 59.2 as lockdown restrictions were lifted across the region. China's PMI reflected a steady recovery albeit at a slower pace as supply chain disruptions weighed on factory activity. In commodity markets, oil prices rallied and rose to their highest level since 2018 as supply is forecasted to tighten in the upcoming months due to strong demand growth and expectations of a cautious OPEC+ in increasing production levels.

Fund Performance. The fund returned 2.41% in June, lagging the benchmark by 113 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The fund manager will continue to invest in equities of medium to large capitalization companies while integrating Catholic social teachings into the investment process.
