OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi) mildly rebounded for the month of February following a slow start of the year. However, much of the recovery was felt during the first week and gains were pared by the renewed concerns over the continuous rising COVID-19 cases, slow vaccination pace, and a seemingly longer economic recovery. Moreover, the surprise inflation print (which came out at 4.2% YoY in January, breaching the 2-4% target by the BSP) led to a knee jerk reaction from the market. Volume surged this month, rising by 10.4% to US$254 million. Foreign activity, meanwhile, remained on the sell side, with net foreign outflows recorded at US$190 million.

Macro-economic news for the month include: 1) Inflation rose to 4.2% in January on the back of spikes in food prices, notably on meat, vegetables and fruits. These were partly due to the spill-over effects of typhoons and the African Swine Flu. 2) Remittances dropped in December to US$2.89 billion owing to declines from Europe (-31%) and Asia (-9%) that offset gains from the USA (+14%). 3) Government debt-to-GDP ratio soared to 14-year high at 54% in December 2020 as the government accelerated borrowings last year due to the pandemic.

In terms of stock performance, the main advancers are as follows: MBT (+12.67%), BPI (+12.02%) and AGI (+8.48%) while the biggest decliners were RRHI (-7.52%), URC (-5.41%) and MEG (-5.24%).

Fund Performance. The fund underperformed its benchmark by 54 basis points in February with a return of 2.22%.

Fund Strategy. We look to stay invested in domestic equities given the low global interest rates. We will continue to buy on dips and adhere to large cap quality cyclicals that will benefit from the next economic upswing.
