OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The JP Morgan Asia Credit Index (JACI) Philippines rose by 0.97% in August as Philippine dollar-denominated bond yields mimicked the gains in US Treasuries.

US Treasury yields ended August higher despite hitting new lows earlier during the month. US economic data remained mostly positive with PMI (Purchasing Managers Index) figures coming in strong, while headline Consumer Price Index (CPI) printed at +5.4% year-on-year. Labor was also looking healthy with 943,000 jobs added to the economy. In the last week of the month, Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell gave his virtual speech at the much-awaited Jackson Hole Symposium. His comments were mostly well-received, as he stated that the Fed was content with the progress on inflation, though it was still believed to be transitory. He likewise emphasized that the timeline for tapering should be viewed as separate from that of the rate increases. For the month, the 10-year US Treasury benchmark yield fell to as low as 1.17% (beginning of August), before closing the month at the 1.31% level (+8.65 basis points MoM).

In the local economic space, July inflation continued to ease to 4.0% year-on-year, compared to June's 4.4% and lower than the median forecast. Though it declined, the figure marks another month that inflation has been higher than the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas' (BSP) target band of 2-4% for the year. The country's 2Q2021 GDP grew by 11.8% YoY, ending the recession mostly due to base effects. Growth was driven by industry and services, while the agricultural sector lagged. During its Monetary Board held August 12, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas hiked its average inflation forecasts by 1% each year, to 4.1% in 2021 and 3.1% for 2022-2023. It stated however, that the rate of price increases has likely peaked as of earlier this year. BSP Governor Benjamin Diokno has continuously reiterated that the central bank would utilize its full arsenal of tools to support growth and stability.

Fund Performance. The Fund gained 0.71% for the month, below its benchmark by 26 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund looks to maintain a neutral duration position and opportunistically add exposure to corporate issuers to enhance yield. Global events remain likely to add volatility. Investors in a bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher investment value is typically achieved over the medium to long term.
