OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi) rallied in October on bargain-hunting after a steep decline in September. The PSEi's positive performance also tracked US stocks rally given better-than-expected 3Q earnings report and the hope that the US Federal Reserve (Fed) will slow the pace of its tightening. Cooling US housing market and decelerating manufacturing growth are few of the economic data that the Fed will definitely take into consideration. The PSEi rose by 7.2% to close at 6,153.43

Trading volume remained thin as many expected with Average Daily Value Turnover coming in at US$ 155 million or 32% lower than the prior month. Meanwhile, foreigners continued to be net sellers at US$11.6 million for October. This has stretched the year-to-date Net Foreign Selling to US$ 1.24 billion.

For the individual stock performances, the top index gainers for the month include: MER (+14.60%), GLO (+14.38%) and BDO (+14.17%). Meanwhile, the bottom index performers were: SCC (-10.38%), RLC (-9.95%) and WLCON (-8.14%).

Fund Performance. The fund outperformed its benchmark by 23 basis points in October with a return of 7.41%.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will maintain its defensive stance given the persisting volatility in the global markets. Global rate hikes, high inflation and local currency depreciation coupled with low-volume trading will continue to apply pressure on equity assets. Likewise, the fund will prefer defensive names (high dividend yielding stocks). Tactically, the fund will take advantage of price swings – raising cash on rallies and buying on dips.
