OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The JP Morgan Asia Credit Index (JACI) Philippines gained 1.16% in December as Philippine dollar-denominated bonds recovered earlier months' losses. However, 2022 was a tough year for global bonds amid the Russia-Ukraine war and the ongoing fight against rising inflation. Over the past year, the JACI Philippines declined by 13.48%.

Global bonds experienced yet another volatile month as improving US inflation was countered by the US Federal Reserve's (the Fed) determination to maintain its aggressive hike path. Earlier in December, the November US CPI was released at 7.1%, lower than consensus estimates and the prior month's 7.7%. This sparked a rally in US Treasuries as investors speculated that the Fed may begin to slow down the pace of its rate hikes. However, gains were reversed after the Fed reiterated that it would remain committed to its fight against inflation, citing a higher terminal rate for the Fed Funds rate. The Bank of Japan's decision to widen its target band for 10-year JGBs from 25 basis points to 50 basis points likewise weighed heavily on bond market sentiment. The 10-year US Treasury yield fell to as low as 3.54% before closing the month at the 3.87% level.

In the local economic space, inflation for the month of November rose by 8.0% year-on-year, higher than the 7.7% in October. This marked the highest year-on-year change since 2008, as food and fuel prices were affected by supply-side pressures and weather disturbances. Consequently, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas hiked rates by another 50 basis points during their final policy meeting for 2022 held mid-month. Central bank officials continued to reiterate that they remained prepared to raise rates as needed, given persistently high CPI levels, as well as central bank policy tightening measures globally.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned 1.05% for the month, below its benchmark by 11 basis points. In terms of YTD performance, the fund returned -10.35%, outperforming the benchmark by 311 bps.

Fund Strategy. The Fund looks to maintain a neutral duration position and opportunistically add exposure to corporate issuers to enhance yield. Global events remain likely to add volatility. Investors in a bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher investment value is typically achieved over the medium to long term.
