OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The JP Morgan Asia Credit Index (JACI) Philippines rose by 0.74% in June as Philippine dollar-denominated bonds outperformed US Treasuries.

Global bonds had a volatile month as investors continued to witness persistent inflationary pressures across the world. US core CPE was at 4.7% year-on-year in April, while US core CPI was at 5.3% year-on-year in May. Both remained well above the Fed's target of 2%. Meanwhile, the Bank of England announced a hawkish 50-bps hike following the release of elevated UK CPI at 8.7% year-on-year.

During its Federal Open Market Committee meeting held mid-month, the Fed held policy rates steady but noted that it could potentially raise rates twice more before the end of the year. The Fed's updated economic forecasts showed inflation to still be above target, which could justify further hawkish actions moving forward. For the month, the 10-year US Treasury yield rose by 20 basis points lower to close the month at 3.84%.

In the local economic space, inflation for the month of May settled at 6.1% year-on-year from the 6.6% print in April. The figure was once again lower than market expectations and was brought about by receding supply-side pressures. Consequently, the BSP kept rates steady during its Monetary Board meeting mid-month, citing the improvement in local prices. Nevertheless, policy officials reiterated that they remained prepared to adjust policy settings as needed and added that easing inflation would give them more flexibility moving forward. The newly appointed BSP Governor, Eli Remolana, will officially begin his term on July 3.

Fund Performance. The fund returned 0.41% in June, underperforming its benchmark by 33 bps. Year to date, the fund returned 2.79%, below the benchmark by 117 bps.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to closely track the JPMorgan Asia Credit Total Return Index. Investors in a bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher investment value is typically achieved over the medium to long term.
