OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Global equities declined in December, with the MSCI All Country World Index posting a -2.1% return for the month. In the US, the S&P 500 dropped -2.0%, as investor sentiment weakened due to expectations of fewer policy rate cuts in 2025, driven by sticky inflation. US inflation, measured by the consumer price index (CPI), rose in November to 2.7% from 2.6% previous month. Despite this, the Federal Reserve (Fed) implemented its third 25bps interest rate reduction of the year. Meanwhile, the US economy added 227,000 jobs in November, rebounding sharply from October's 36,000 jobs gain. The composite purchasing managers' index (PMI) increased to 55.4 in December from 54.9 previous month, signalling private-sector expansion, led by a rise in the services PMI to 56.8 from 56.1, though manufacturing PMI slipped to 49.4 from 49.7. In Europe, the MSCI Europe Index declined by -1.0%. Although the European Central Bank (ECB) cut its deposit rate by 25bps as expected, they warned about the slowing growth in the Eurozone, emphasizing the need for stronger consumer spending and business investment to sustain recovery. In Japan, equities rose for the month, with the TOPIX gaining 4.0%, supported by a weaker yen that benefited export-focused industries. Emerging market equities remained flat, with the MSCI Emerging Market Index returning 0.2% following China's announcement of plans for increased public borrowing and spending in 2025.

Fund Performance. The fund returned -4.41% in December, behind the benchmark by 320 bps. On a year-to-date basis, the fund gained 21.06%, behind the benchmark by 302 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The fund manager will continue to invest in equities of medium to large capitalization companies while integrating Catholic social teachings into the investment process.
