OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The BPI Government Bond Index fell 2.11% in April as the local yield curve rose 64 basis points (bps) on average. Average daily trading volume for the month amounted to Php14.73 billion, lower than March's Php19.73 billion with trades mostly seen on the belly of the curve.

The Bureau of the Treasury (BTr) held four FXTN auctions in April. The 7-year FXTN 07-71 was fully awarded at an average yield of 6.299%. The 10-year FXTN 10-72, and 20-year FXTN 20-26 reissuances were partially awarded at average yields of 6.365%, and 6.900%, respectively. The bids for the FXTN 20-23 issuance were fully rejected. Had the BTr awarded the bids for the 15-year paper, average rates would have risen to 6.987%.

In the local space, March headline inflation rose further by 3.7% year-on-year from the previous month's 3.4%. Food, transport, and restaurants were the main driver of inflation, with rice prices reporting 24.4% increase year-on-year, fastest pace since 2009. Despite the recent spike in prices, inflation print managed to stay within the central bank's 2 to 4% target range. During the recent Monetary Board meeting, the BSP held their policy rate steady at 6.5% after a higher inflation figure. The central bank also revised their 2024 risk-adjusted inflation forecast from 3.9% to 4.0% as risks to inflation remain tilted to the upside.

The Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi) exhibited a wide swing in April. The index started off strong, reaching as high as 7,000 level to falling to as low as 6,400 mark before ultimately settling at 6,700.49 or down by 2.94% on a month-on-month basis. Risk-off sentiment ensued on the back of the US Federal Reserve's (The Fed) hawkish tone coupled by escalating tensions over in the middle east. On the local space, the headline inflation in March rose to 3.7% from 3.4% in February primarily due to food inflation which registered at 5.6%. Moreover, investors were also wary of the Philippine Peso's depreciation, recording at 57.8 against the US Dollar at one point during the month.

Trading activity slowed during the month, with average daily turnover at US$116 million or 6.5% lower than US$124 million recorded in March. Foreign selling persisted for another month at US$412 million, the highest since September 2023. Property stocks saw the largest outflow while consumer names had some sizable sell-offs. On the other hand, banks continued to see foreign demand while conglomerates exhibited two-way flows. Foreign participation declined to 46% from 50%.

On a per name basis, the top three index gainers for the month include: BPI (+7.96%), ACEN (+7.79%) and MBT (+7.44%). Meanwhile, the bottom three performers were: SMPH (-14.53%), PGOLD (-11.57%) and ALI (-10.85%).

Fund Performance. The Fund returned -3.22% in April, underperforming the benchmark by 72 bps. Year-to-date, the Fund registered a loss of 0.79%, behind the benchmark by 186 bps.

Fund Strategy. The Fund looks to maintain its current duration position as interest rates are expected to stabilize over the medium term. While inflation has settled within the BSP's target in the past months, upside risks are still present. The BSP remains vigilant in monitoring supply side pressures and potential second-round effects. The central bank signalled that it is waiting for inflation rates to fall comfortably within the 2-4% target before cutting policy rates. Volatility may persist in the global space, and the portfolio will be actively managed to take advantage of this. Investors in a bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher investment value is typically achieved over the medium to long term. For equities: The Fund will continue to be defensive, but also opportunistic, as volatility could persist given thin market liquidity and inflation risk is still on the upside. The Fund will focus on companies with leading market capitalization and good fundamentals.
