OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. In July, global fixed income assets performed poorly as bond yields rose, driven by stronger-than-expected U.S. labor data, accelerating inflation, and the Federal Reserve's decision to hold its policy rate steady. The US economy added 147,000 jobs in June, surpassing market expectations of 106,000, while inflation climbed from 2.4% in May to 2.7% in June, reflecting upward pressure from recently imposed tariffs.

The US macroeconomic backdrop supported the Fed's decision to maintain its policy rate at 4.25%–4.50%. Fed Chair Jerome Powell emphasized that the labor market's resilience allows the central bank to wait for greater clarity on the inflationary impact of tariffs. Although some trade agreements were reached, higher tariffs are still scheduled to take effect on August 1.

In the Philippines, dollar-denominated bond yields showed mixed movements, with shorter tenors increasing and longer tenors declining. The JP Morgan Asia Credit Index – Philippines delivered a monthly return of 0.75%, supported by stable interest income.

Fund Performance. The fund returned 0.73% in July, underperforming the benchmark by 2 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund will continue to closely track the JPMorgan Asia Credit Total Return Index. Investors in a bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher investment value is typically achieved over the medium to long term.
