OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. In June 2025, global fixed income markets experienced a notable steepening of yield curves, reflecting mixed investor sentiment and divergent central bank actions. U.S. Treasuries rallied following dovish commentary from the Federal Reserve and the release of softer-than-expected economic data. This resulted in a bull-steepening of the yield curve, with yields declining across maturities. In contrast, Japanese Government Bonds bear-steepened as long-term yields rose, driven by weak demand in the 20-year auction.

During its June policy meeting, the Federal Reserve maintained its target rate at 4.25%–4.50%, signalling a cautious stance amid ongoing economic uncertainty. Chair Jerome Powell reiterated the Fed's wait-and-see approach, particularly in assessing the inflationary implications of recent tariff measures. Geopolitical tensions intensified mid-month when Israel launched airstrikes on Iranian infrastructure, prompting U.S. military involvement and triggering a flight to safe-haven assets.

In the Philippines, the dollar-denominated yield curve also bull-steepened, mirroring movements in U.S. Treasuries. The JP Morgan Asia Credit Index – Philippines posted a monthly return of 1.10%, supported by favorable external conditions and improved investor sentiment.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned 1.19% for the month, outperforming its benchmark by 9 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund looks to maintain its duration position as interest rates are expected to decline in the medium term. Market volatility may persist due to ongoing uncertainties in the global economic landscape, particularly due to the rapidly evolving US trade policies. Investors in a bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher investment value is typically achieved over the medium to long term.
