⁶ BENCHMARK INFORMATION

Name: MSCI All Country World Index Net Total Return USD Index

Description and Key Characteristics: The MSCI ACWI Index, MSCI's flagship global equity index, is designed to represent performance for the full opportunity set of large- and mid-cap stocks across 23 developed and 24 Emerging Markets. With 2,757 constituents, the index covers approximately 85% of the global investable equity opportunity set.

The index is based on the MSCI Global Investable Market Indexes (GIMI) Methodology —a comprehensive and consistent approach to index construction that allows for meaningful global views and cross regional comparisons across all market capitalization size, sector and style segments and combinations. This methodology aims to provide exhaustive coverage of the relevant investment opportunity set with a strong emphasis on index liquidity, investability and replicability

The MSCI Total Return Indices measure the market performance, including price performance and income from regular cash distributions (cash dividend payments or capital repayments). MSCI's Daily Total Return (DTR) methodology reinvests regular cash distributions in indices on the ex-date of such distributions.

Information about the benchmark may be accessed through MSCI. Alternatively, participants may request information from BPI Wealth at bpiwealth.com.ph.

It is hereby disclosed that any deviations between the UITF's risk-return profile or characteristics and those of the designated benchmark have been reasonably justified and duly approved by the Board of Directors, in accordance with fiduciary and regulatory obligations.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Global equities were mixed in February. The MSCI ACWI rose by just under 1% while the Nasdaq 100 fell -3.9% and the S&P 500 dipped by -1.4%. The relatively muted range of the S&P 500 for most of the month gave way to heightened volatility as the month closed following a breakout of tensions in the Middle East.

February closed with mixed sector dynamics. Utilities led sector returns with a 10.4% monthly gain followed by Energy up 9.5% and Materials up 8.4%. As risk premia rose, Consumer Staples fared well too, rising 7.8% for the month and Health Care followed suit, up 3.5%. The worst performing sector was Financials, which tumbled -3.8% and Technology also struggled, down -3.6% for the month.

The U.S.-Iran conflict muddied the Federal Reserve's interest-rate path, with rising oil prices and inflation uncertainty prompting policymakers to reconsider the pace and direction of future rate moves. Some officials suggest that rate cuts may be delayed or even reversed if inflationary pressures persist.

Corporate earnings growth remains uneven in early 2026, with technology and communication services continuing to drive a disproportionate share of overall gains, while many smaller companies are exhibiting more modest momentum. That said, broader forecasts still indicate positive earnings growth across all sectors for the full year.

In February, the EURO STOXX 50 index reached a 52-week high of 6,173 near the end of the month. After a strong February, concerns in the Middle East also weighed on European share price by month-end.

Asia-Pacific equities generally rose throughout February, extending a strong start to the year driven by sustained investor appetite, particularly in technology, semiconductors, and AI-linked stocks. The Nikkei 225 trended higher most of the month, hitting multi-year record levels while South Korea's KOSPI had an extremely strong February, breaking above 6,000.

Fund Performance. The fund returned 0.88% in February, underperforming the benchmark by 41 basis points. Security selection within the fund detracted performance.

Fund Strategy. Maintain broadening exposure to diversify portfolio given uncertainties brought about by the Iran war. Exposure in US market benefits from resilience of the domestic economy with less dependence on oil from the Middle East. Meanwhile, Emerging Market equities trades at discounted valuations and will benefit more on relief rallies. Remain invested in technology and AI sector which is less negatively impacted by rising oil prices and inflation.
