Description and Key Characteristics: Treasury Bills are zero coupon peso-denominated short-term fixed income securities issued by the Republic of the Philippines through its Bureau of Treasury.

Relation to the Fund's Objective or Investment Strategy: The Fund is actively managed, allowing the Trustee full discretion on security selection. OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Short-dated yields were broadly stable to lower in April amid mixed market sentiment. Month-on-month, the 3-month BVAL was flat, while 6-month BVAL and 1-year BVAL declined by 7 bps and 10 bps, respectively. Investors maintained a preference for short duration securities as a spike in oil prices drove speculation for higher moving forward.

During the April 27 Treasury bill auction, yields came in broadly higher, rising by as much as 13 bps compared to the previous week, in line with the upward shift seen in the secondary market rates. The Bureau of Treasury also trimmed its offering by Php 3 billion week-on-week, primarily through a reduction in the 6-month tenor. Despite the smaller supply, demand softened noticeably with the bid-to-cover ratio easing to 2.45x from 3.85x previously – pointing to more cautious participation from investors amid recent rate environment. Auction results settled at 4.558% for the 3-month, 4.737% for the 6-month, and 5.184% for the 1-year tenor.

For the month of March, local inflation surged to 4.1%, exceeding market's consensus expectation of 3.8%. The firmer March inflation print was largely driven by higher fuel costs linked to the US-Iran tensions, alongside increases in housing and utility expenses. In response to these developments, the BSP has pivoted back to a tightening stance, delivering a 25 bps rate hike in April. This shift signals a renewed focus on anchoring inflation expectations, with policymakers indicating readiness to follow through with further measured tightening should price pressures increase.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned 0.69% during the month of April, outperforming the benchmark by 31 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund favors the safety of shorter-dated securities and time deposits. With the expectation of increased volatility this year due to upside risks to inflation, the fund manager aims to maintain a nimble portfolio position to take advantage of any opportunities.
