KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Interest Rate Risk: The fund invests in short term domestic fixed income securities, exposing investors to the risk of loss arising from a rise in interest rates, which generally causes fixed income security prices to decline. Factors/events that may lead to a rise in interest rates include adverse market conditions, issuer-specific factors/events and/or negative developments in domestic political and economic conditions.

Liquidity Risk: Investors are exposed to the risk of loss due to the Fund's inability to convert security holdings to cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a highly disadvantageous price due to limited buyers/sellers in the market, low trading volumes or market disruptions, among other reasons/ factors.

Credit/Default Risk: Investors are exposed to the risk of loss due to the failure of the borrower/ debt issuer to make timely interest and/or principal payments on its deposit liabilities, loans, bonds or other debt instruments due to a deterioration in the borrower's/ issuer's financial condition or external factors and events that may affect its ability to repay financial obligations such as negative developments in domestic political and economic conditions.

Related Party Risk: Investors are exposed to actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of related party transactions by the Trustee, specifically, time deposit placements with the Trustee's own bank and/ or its subsidiary, purchase of debt securities issued by related parties, as well as the execution of trade transactions with related counterparties.

In accordance with the provisions in the Declaration of Trust, the Fund employs a risk management policy based on duration. The Fund may also use financial derivatives to hedge the portfolio against market and credit risks.

Description and Key Characteristics: Treasury Bills are zero coupon peso-denominated short-term fixed income securities issued by the Republic of the Philippines through its Bureau of Treasury.

Relation to the Fund's Objective or Investment Strategy: The Fund is actively managed, allowing the Trustee full discretion on security selection. OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. The BPI Money Market Index gained 0.37% in February as the short end of the yield curve continued to benefit from high levels of market liquidity. Bond yields at the short end were also supported by weaker-than-expected economic performance and expectations of a continued accommodative stance for monetary policy.

Treasury bill yields fell for a seventh straight week during the February 23 auction, delivering lower average rates of 4.240% (91 day), 4.357% (182 day), and 4.501% (364 day) amid heavy oversubscription and increased award sizes. The Banko Sentral ng Pilipinas' 28 day bills also saw yields decline, with the February 27 auction posting a 4.4496% weighted average accepted yield, roughly 5 basis points lower compared to the prior week's results. Declining yields across local government and BSP securities likewise contributed to downward pressure on time deposit rates across the banking system.

For the month of January, local inflation came in at 2.0%, in line with market expectations but faster than the 1.8% seen in December. Prices were driven by higher rent and electricity prices. With inflation seen to heat up in the months ahead, the BSP will likely remain data-dependent with regard to determining their policy changes moving forward.

Fund Performance. The Fund returned 0.28% during the month, outperforming the benchmark by a basis point.

Fund Strategy. The Fund favors the safety of shorter-dated securities and time deposits. With the expectation of increased volatility this year due to upside risks to inflation, the fund manager aims to maintain a nimble portfolio position to take advantage of any opportunities.
