<sup>4</sup> BENCHMARK INFORMATION

Name: MSCI AC World Information Technology 10/40 Index

Description and Key Characteristics: The MSCI ACWI Information Technology 10/40 Index is a free-float weighted index that includes large and mid cap securities across 23 Developed Markets (DM) countries and 24 Emerging Markets (EM) countries. All securities in the index are classified in the Information Technology sector as per the Global Industry Classification Standard (GICS®).

The index is based on the MSCI Global Investable Market Indexes (GIMI) Methodology—a comprehensive and consistent approach to index construction that allows for meaningful global views and cross regional comparisons across all market capitalization size, sector and style segments and combinations. This methodology aims to provide exhaustive coverage of the relevant investment opportunity set with a strong emphasis on index liquidity, investability and replicability.

The MSCI 10/40 Indexes take into account the investment limits imposed by the Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities (UCITS) directive on funds incorporated in member states of the European Union. The directive constrains the weight of any single group entity, at 10% of a fund's total assets and the sum of the weights of all group entities representing more than 5% of the fund at 40% of the fund's total assets. These indices aim to represent the constrained version of the MSCI Equity Indexes, by applying the weight constraints to the nonconstrained, free-float adjusted market capitalization weighted MSCI Equity Indexes.

Relation to the Fund's Objective or Investment Strategy: The Fund operates as a Feeder Fund. The Target Fund is actively managed and will refer to MSCI AC World Information Technology Index when constructing the portfolio and managing its risk to ensure that the Fund remains aligned with its investment objectives. When selecting investments, the Target Trustee has discretion and is not restricted to the components or weighting of the Index. The Target Fund may invest in securities not included in the Index to take advantage of investment opportunities, subject to the asset class, regional, industry, sector and/or strategy requirements of its investment objectives. Investors may use the Index to measure the performance of the Fund.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. U.S. equities were strongly bullish in April. The MSCI ACWI rose +10.17% while the Nasdaq 100 gained +15.66% and the S&P 500 climbed 10.49%. The risk-on sentiment was supported by the White House announcement of a 2-week ceasefire of the conflict in Iran.

Most sectors were affected by the bullish sentiment. Information Technology was the strongest performer, rallying 18.2% for the month while Real Estate rallied 8.4% and Consumer Discretionary gained 7.7%. Communication Services also had a good month, climbing 4.7% while Health Care was the laggard, slipping 1.1% during the period.

Corporate earnings momentum in April remained strong among AI-related companies, particularly across semiconductors and AI infrastructure, though investors became more focused on whether elevated growth rates can be sustained as comparisons become tougher and capital spending continues to rise.

Fund Performance. The fund returned 26.64% in April, outperforming the benchmark by 424 basis points.

Fund Strategy. Technology fundamentals remained resilient in April 2026, with AI still the central growth driver and NVIDIA extending the narrative into quantum-enabled computing. On NVIDIA Quantum Day, the company announced Ising, an open-source family of quantum AI models designed to improve quantum processor calibration and error correction, reinforcing the shift from AI experimentation toward more advanced, scalable computing infrastructure.

Infrastructure and models remain core pillars of our positioning. A backdrop of constructive sentiment, improving earnings visibility, and intermittent volatility strengthens the case for active stock selection. As the AI buildout deepens and competitive moats widen across the ecosystem, we see structural tailwinds that support long-term outperformance for well-positioned technology leaders.

We are selectively increasing exposure to companies with demonstrated AI monetization, durable competitive advantages, and clear pathways to scaled adoption. Opportunities remain compelling where valuations do not fully reflect multi-year growth trajectories, particularly in hardware, infrastructure, and enabling technologies that benefit directly from expanding AI workloads and real-world deployment.
