⁴ BENCHMARK INFORMATION

Name	Description and Key Characteristics
PSEi Total Return Index (PSEi TRI)	The Philippine Stock Exchange Index or PSEi is the main index of the Philippine Stock Exchange. The PSEi is a free float-adjusted market capitalization-weighted index of the 30 largest and most active common stock. The PSEi Total Return Index (PSEi TRI) covers both price performance and income from dividend payments by reinvesting cash dividends back to the PSEi according to each constituent's respective market capitalization weightings.
BPI Philippine Government Bond Index	The BPI Philippine Government Bond Index (the BPI Index) is sponsored by the Bank of the Philippine Islands (the Sponsor). The Sponsor is responsible for the design of the BPI Index and the issuance of these Rules. The BPI Index is intended to reflect the performance of Philippine Government, fixed-rate straight bonds denominated in Philippine Peso. It is intended to be a template for passive, diversified fixed income investment portfolios where securities are held in proportion to the market value (Market Capitalization) of the issued securities. It aims to provide accurate and objective benchmarks by which to assess the performance of the Philippine Government bond market.

Details about the equity benchmark component can be accessed through the Philippine Stock Exchange website at <https://www.pse.com.ph>. For information regarding the fixed income benchmark component, participants may contact the calculating agent, BPI Investments Inc, via email at bpi_investment@bpi.com.ph. Alternatively, inquiries may also be directed to BPI Wealth at bpiwealth@bpi.com.ph.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market Review. Philippine government bond prices declined in March as yields in the market moved higher. On average, bond yields increased by about 81 basis points, with bonds maturing in 3 to 10 years seeing the largest increases. The rise in yields was mainly driven by concerns about higher inflation following a sharp increase in global oil prices. Locally, fuel prices went up significantly during the month, with gasoline prices rising from Php53 to Php93 per liter and diesel prices from Php61 to Php119. Near the end of March, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas held an unscheduled meeting and decided to keep policy interest rates unchanged, citing concerns about economic growth despite inflation risks. Investor sentiment was further affected by the weakening of the Philippine peso against the US dollar, which moved from Php57.67 to Php60.75 during the month. As a result, foreign investors continued to reduce their holdings of Philippine government bonds, with net outflows amounting to Php81.9 billion in March. During the month, the Bureau of the Treasury raised Php55.2 billion through its regular bond auctions, which was below its Php108 billion target. This was due to the government choosing to accept fewer bids as bond yields continued to rise.

The Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi) suffered a sharp correction in March, mainly due to the heightened geopolitical tensions in the Middle East following the outbreak of open hostilities involving the United States and Israel against Iran. This development triggered a broad risk-off sentiment across global financial markets. Global commodity markets reacted swiftly, with oil prices spiking above US$100 per barrel. This surge posed heightened risks for the Philippines, given the country's reliance on imported energy. In response to the worsening macroeconomic backdrop, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) adopted a more cautious monetary stance, revising its inflation forecasts upward to reflect the pass-through effects of higher fuel prices. Consequently, the Philippine peso depreciated sharply, closing the month at Php60.748 per US dollar, compared with Php57.665 per US dollar previously. For the month of March, the PSEi closed at 5,948.94 or down by 10.02% month-on-month. In terms of market activity, Average Daily Value Turnover stood at Php6.47 million, in-line with prior month figure. Meanwhile, foreigners continue to exit the market after registering US$231 million worth of net selling for this month. On a per stock basis, the top three index gainers for the month include: SMC (+5.59%), ACEN (+4.98%) and DMCI (+3.42%). Meanwhile, the bottom three performers were: ALI (-22.78%), GTCAP (-22.39%) and URC (-18.38%).

Fund Performance. The Fund returned -5.33% in March, underperforming the benchmark by 54 basis points. Year-to-date, the Fund registered a loss of -2.64%, underperforming the benchmark by 135 basis points.

Fund Strategy. The Fund looks to maintain a nimble portfolio position to take advantage of any opportunities as interest rates are seen to increase over the next few months. Local inflation is seen to be affected by ongoing geopolitical tensions in the Middle East and may breach the BSP's targeted range near-term. This may prompt the BSP to end its cutting cycle earlier than anticipated. Volatility may persist in the near term driven by global factors, and the portfolio will be actively managed to take advantage of this. Investors in a bond fund must be prepared to withstand volatility as higher returns are typically achieved over the medium to long term. As for Equities, The Fund will continue to be defensive given heightened volatility from geopolitical tensions. The Fund's preference is for companies with leading market capitalization, clear earnings growth drivers, dividend-paying and high-yielding.
